AS YOU KNOW, WE CULtivate issues that can develop into differences of opinion.

We mean we sorta egg people on, so to speak.

We think it is helathy and stimulating for people to express how they feel on a certain subject and we are pleased that they sometimes use The Campbell Press (through the letters-to-the-editor department) as the means to give vent to their feelings.

Come to think of it, where else can they go.

We are well aware that there is a danger, however, that letter-writers on some issues can get carried away. Their personal feelings sometimes get confused with the facts of the case.

You see, "facts per se" are often how one person has interpreted something. Another person can "prove" an entirely different connotation by the same "facts".

What we are saying, is that we have called a halt, more or less, to publishing any more letters about the hassle that apparently has developed in some circles about the conduct of music lessons at West Valley College.

Frankly, we think we have done our duty. Nothing will be gained by publishing vindictive rebuttals..

As much as we like to see these letters coming across our desk, we have neither the time nor the patience to check each charge and counter-charge.

Unfortunately, even with the letter-writer's signature in our file, this newspaper is still responsible for what appears in print.

THIS IS NOT TO SAY that the issue may not need investigating.

But we see no reason, at this time and place, to allow the columns of this newspaper to be used for a personal vendetta.

One letter-writer made an accusation. The letter was answered.

Some of the other letters we have received on the subject make charges that we are not about to publish. Period.

Unless, of course, it can be shown by chapter and verse that the charges are substantiated.

AND, we will keep the letters on file.

Come into the office and you can read 'em, if you so desire.

But you had better believe that they won't see the light of print until the matter has been checked out in its entirety.

Wow!

We have enough trouble keeping our doors open as it is.

'Nuff said.

DEAN CHAMBERLIN was sworn in as mayor last week. He was vice-mayor last year and it was conceded that he would succeed Homer Hyde.

The swearing-in and the organization of the Council takes place one week after the municipal election is held every two years. Votes of the election are canvassed at that time and the results officially certified

At no time in this city's history has there been a question about the "unofficial" results that were tabulated on election night.

(We recall that in one bond issue in the dim past, the question of a recount was raised because the results were so close. But the recount did not materialize.)

Anyway, those of you who are familiar with the logistics involved in the operation of this newspaper, must recognize that a Tuesday night meeting of any sort is for the birds, as far as The Press is concerned.

If we are not ready for the press by the time an 8 p.m. meeting is called, this outfit is

City hall contract awaits solving deficit problem

Letting of the contract for the building of Campbell's new city hall was delayed Monday night by the City Council for an age-old reason.

Money.

Faced with a $62,295 deficit in the funding for Campbell's new city hall as a result of the bids opened last Friday, the City Council will meet in a special session next Monday, May 4, in an attempt to find a way out of the fiscal predicament.

The Council will meet at 7:30 p.m. at the corporation yard.

The deficit is based on the computations made from the bid submitted by the Frazier Construction Co., of Campbell, of $779,000 as a base. With the alternates the cost comes to $1,164,695.

According to the figures prepared by the city staff, despite a proposed special tax of 11 cents per $100 assessed valuation for 1970-71 and six cents for 1971-72, only $1,102,400 will be available for the city hall, leaving the deficit of $62,295.

The Frazier bid became the lowest of the 12 submitted for the job after the City Council released Edward R. Griffin, a general contractor from Livermore, from the base bid his firm had presented to $749,817.

Griffin, who was present at the Council meeting Monday and who also had submitted a letter, claimed that through a transposition of figures, an error of $23,769 had been discovered in his bid. He added that, inasmuch as only $20,000 had been listed for overhead and profit, the error would cause his firm a financial loss.

Complicating matters also was the fact that Griffin had

Rafferty cites need for closing education 'gaps'

Dr. Max Rafferty, state superintendent of public instruction, as principal speaker at the dinner meeting Friday night which closed the fourth annual Congress for Community Progress, listed five "gaps" that need to be closed in the educational field.

He maintained that teachers and parents must cooperate to resolve the (1) credibility, (2) morality, (3) frill, (4) sex education and (5) propaganda gaps that now exist.

Dr. Rafferty pointed out that teachers should not be pitted against parents because of misinformation offered by students. Criticism of the teachers, should be deserved, he pointed out.

There is no place in the profession for teachers who condone the breaking of laws, Rafferty added. Teachers should show the way to orderly change.

He claimed there was a definite misunderstanding about what constitute "frills" in education. He defined "frill" as a subject that cannot be justi-

City Council overrules Planners in sign case

Campbell councilmen went against prior Planning Commission rulings on Monday night when they approved the proposed sign for the "Big Brake" at Winchester and Rincon and refused to approve a zone change on Dell Ave.

R. J. LoCastro had appealed the ruling of Art Kee, planning director, (which was sustained by the Planning Commission) that the symbolic brake shoes that were part of the company's trademark, according to the applicant, should be removed from the pole sign. Councilman Ed Rogers cast the lone negative vote.

In the zone change case, Phillip Olavarri had requested the zoning of his property at 1249 Dell Ave. be changed from "controlled manufacturing" to "light manufacturing" (M-1-S). A motion to approve the request lost for want of a second, so the present zoning of M-1-S remains on the parcel.

The Council approved the application of a solicitor's permit as requested by Leonard Lindbeck and also the request of the Campbell JayCees for a carnival permit for their annual spring festival. The carnival will be held May 7-10 at San Tomas Road and Campbell Avenue.

Approved also was the parcel map for Wisteria Investment Co. between Hamilton and Winchester on which it was reported Barclays Bank will relocate.

The Council also extended the interim zoning on the civic center area (between Harrison and Second and Campbell and Latimer). The Planning Commission is now in the process of recommending the permanent zoning for the area.

A proposed ordinance regulating the towing of vehicles from private property was distributed to the councilmen for study by City Attorney Joe Bonacina.

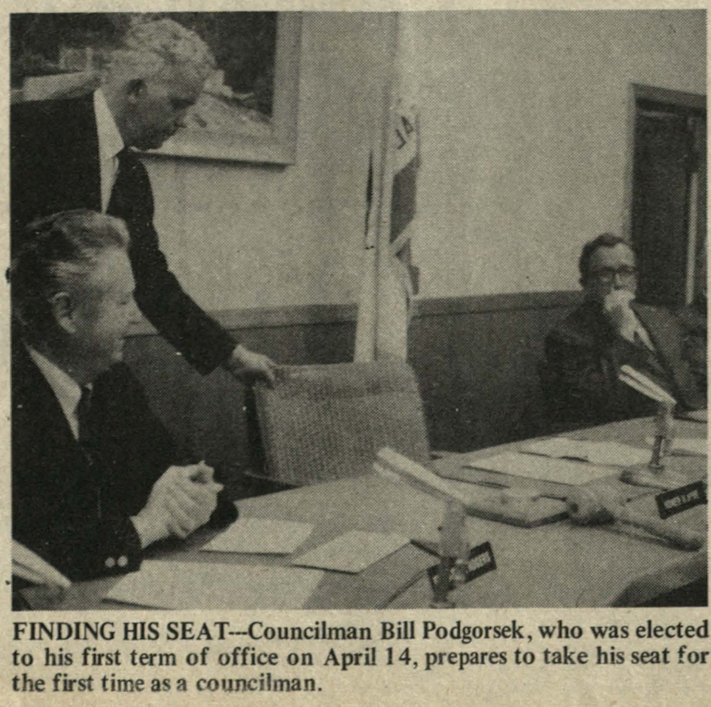
The Council also agreed to participate in the proposed baylands study program to the extent of $480 provided all the other cities did likewise.

The resignation of Bill Podgorsek from the Parks and Recreation Commission was accepted by the Council. Podgorsek was elected to the Council on April 14.

A request for a stop sign at More and Pollard Roads, as requested by representatives of Rolling Hills School, was referred to staff for investigation and report.

Adopted (second reading) were the pre-zoning and annexation ordinances for six parcels on S. Bascom including "The Yardstick"

GAVEL EXCHANGE---Dean Chamberlin, who was named mayor for the next year by his fellow councilmen accepts the gavel of office from retiring Mayor Homer Hyde. Hyde did not seek reelection to the City Council in the recent municipal election.



FINDING HIS SEAT---Councilman Bill Podgorsek, who was elected to his first term of office on April 14, prepares to take his seat for the first time as a councilman.

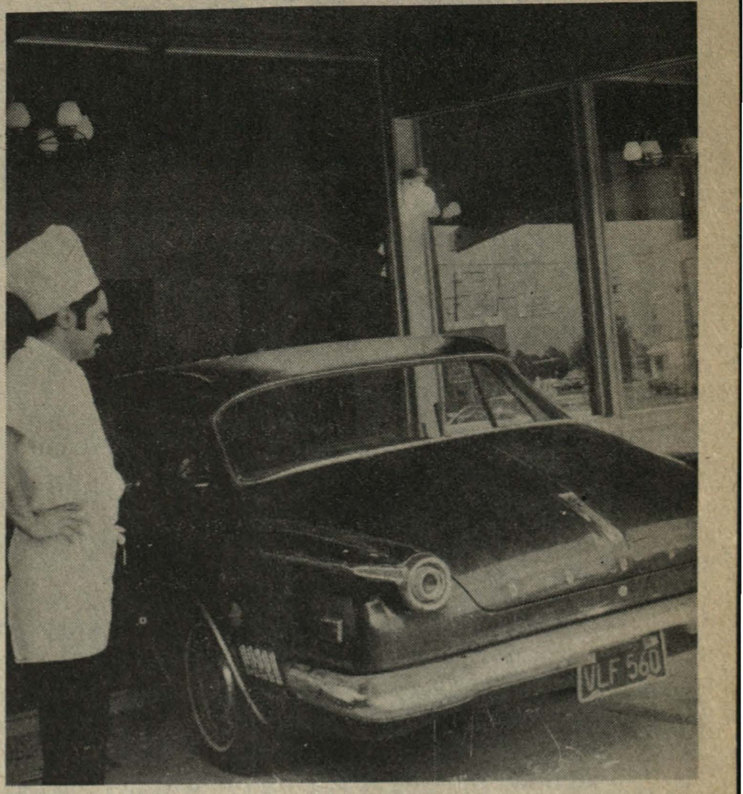
Ramps get boost

Those off- and on-ramps onto Campbell Avenue from Highway 17, long advocated by civic officials, apparently now have the blessing of the state highway people, Bill Wren, public works director, told the City Council Monday night.

The ramps are still a long way in the future, Wren explained, and there are a couple of hardy road blocks yet to overcome.

Particularly, he noted, the city will have to dig up $1 million for its share of the $2 million-plus project.

Wren displayed a drawing of the state proposal which showed loops coming off the freeway. The west loop, it was pointed out, would enter Campbell Avenue at the edge of Campbell Park, necessitating a slight slice from the park.



Well, it IS a drive-in

THIS KIND OF BUSINESS I DON'T NEED---Bob Bassian, owner of The Spitfire (formerly Kidd's Charcoal Broiler), corner of Campbell and Dillon avenues, looks over the '62 Valiant driven by Mrs. Margaret Magdaleno after it jumped the curb, crashed through the restaurant and stopped halfway inside the building April 22. Flying glass inflicted slight injuries to one patron and Ken Sparks, of Ken's Office Machines, suffered a wrenched back when a bench and table were pushed into him as he leaped from the auto's path. Fortunately the accident happened in the early afternoon after the noon rush hour when the establishment is normally crowded.

Work starts soon on Rincon overpass

That long-awaited pedestrian overpass should become a reality by the start of the fall as a result of the county supervisors letting the contract for construction of the project.

The contract has been awarded to the Lew Jones Construction Co. for $108,889.

The overpass project will be financed by four different agencies. Campbell will pick up $25,000 of the tab with the City of San Jose and the Campbell Union (elementary) School District footing the bill for $12,500 each.

The county will pay half the total cost.

All bids were rejected the first time around because they were too high. The plans were slightly modified and new bids were asked.

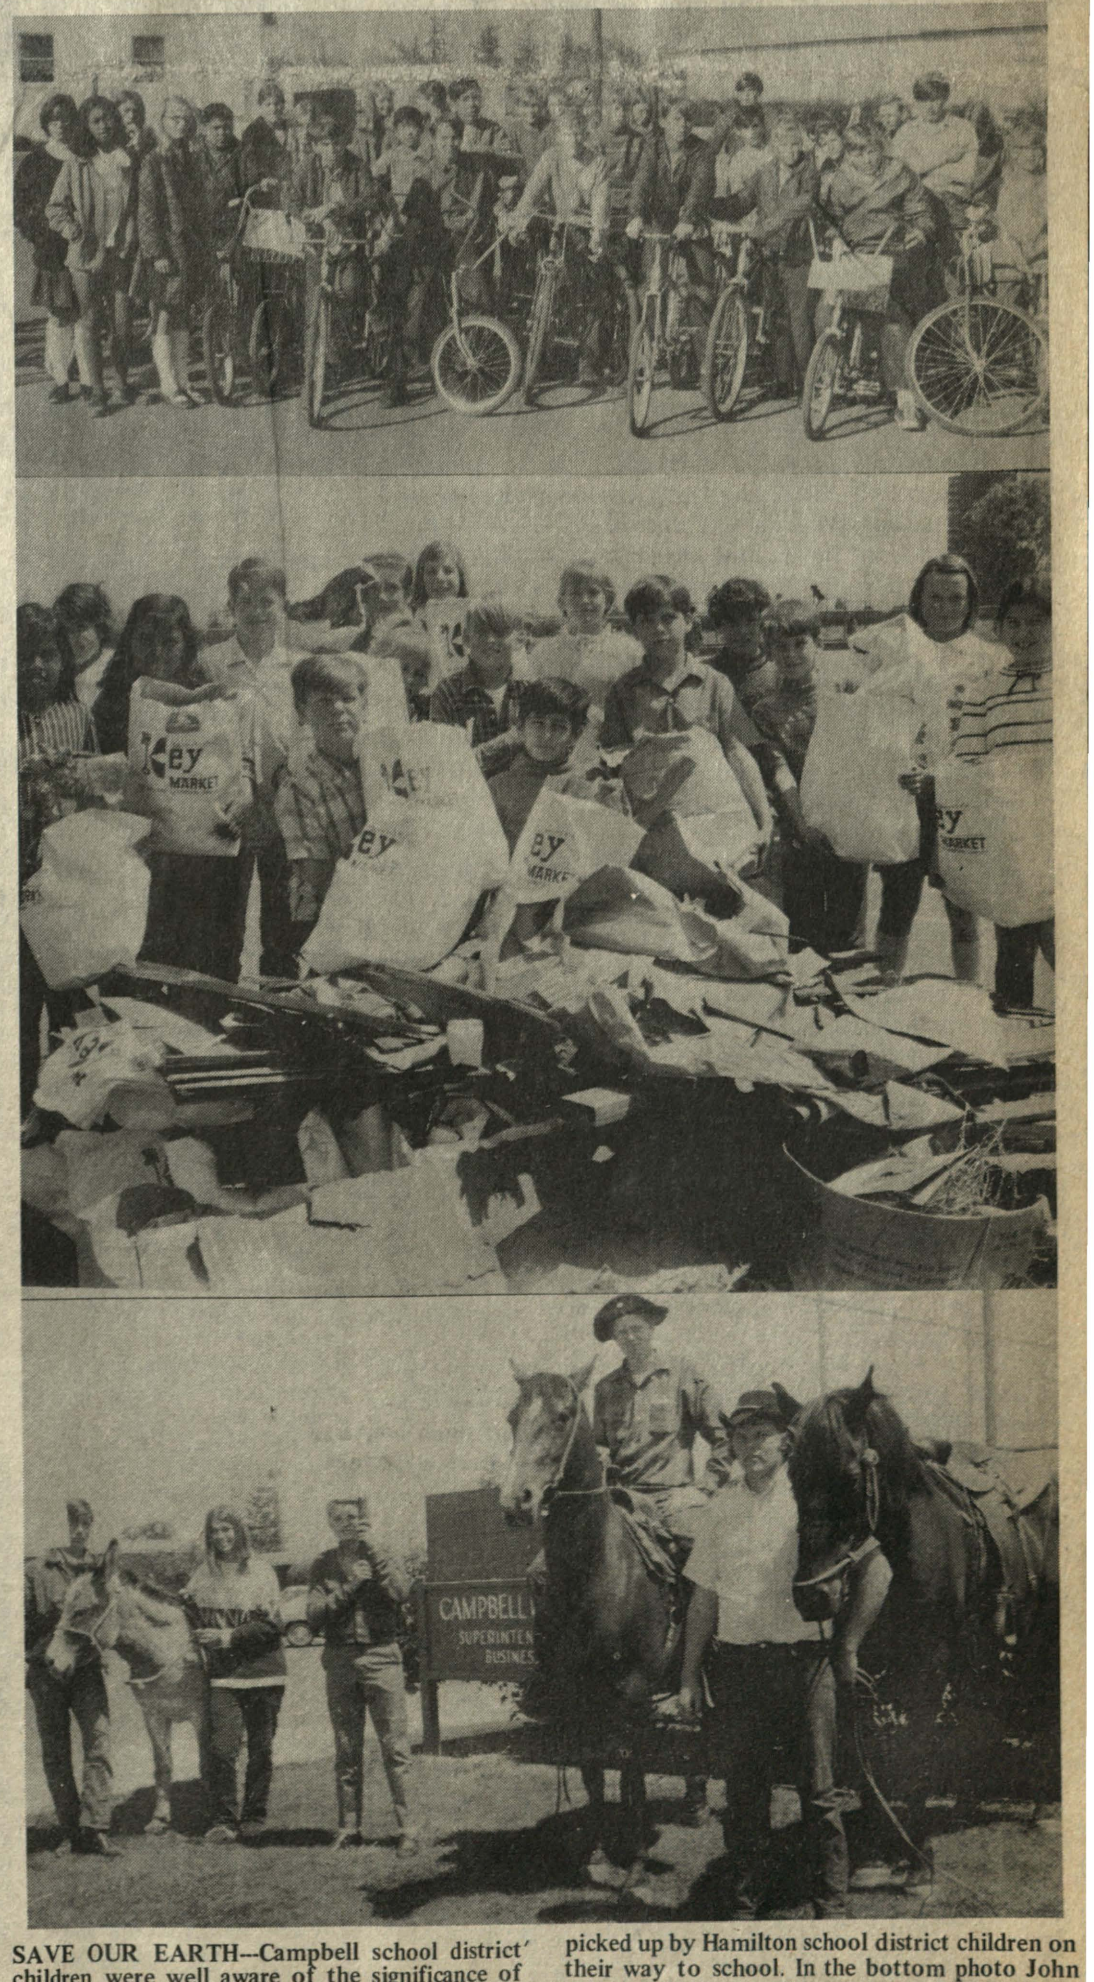
The pedestrian overpass will provide easy access to Campbell's Rincon Park and will also remove some of the traffic hazards for youngsters going to and from school.

JayCee dinner changes place

The annual Campbell JayCee's "Young Man of the Year" dinner scheduled for Tuesday, May 5, has been transferred to Lou's Village, instead of the previously announced Little Old New Yorker.

During the dinner a local young man or woman will be presented with the Distinguished Service Award, the highest award the JayCees can present.

Speaker at the dinner will be Eville J. Younger, district attorney of Los Angeles County



SAVE OUR EARTH---Campbell school district' children were well aware of the significance of April 22, "Earth Day". In the bottom photo John Aitken and Tom Atkin, Del Mar High School students, rode their horses to school. Problems exist

Over the years as this City has grown, developed and expanded, there have been a number of pressing problems that have continuously remained.

The problems have existed almost from the day the city was incorporated and unfortunately, 18 years later, the problems are still acute and they are probably as far from being resolved as they were in the beginning.

And over the years, periodically, The Campbell Press has called attention to those problems but, unfortunatley, "calling attention" is about all we had to offer.

At no time, did we come up with answers.

The two basic problems that have grown whiskers while people have attempted to come up with the answers are (1) Gilman-Dillon-Railway area and (2) Campbell Ave. (in the so-called downtown area).

In addition to being aware from an overall point of view of the city, as the community's medium of communication, that a problem exists in the Gilman-Dillon-Railway area as far as its future development is concerned, The Press is aware of the situation from another angle.

The Press building is IN the area.

Obviously what happens to that section of town is of vital concern to The Press directly.

However, over these years, The Press has attempted to view the situation objectively, without taking into consideration the fact that The Press is one of the "concerned" property owners.

For example, the records will show that The Press offered no objections when it was felt that an "interim zoning" was necessary to halt permanent construction until it was decided what type of zoning should be placed on the area.

As a matter of fact, during the long sessions, under The federally-subsidized '701' planning program when the recommendation of the consultants was adopted specifying that the area should be developed for medium or high desnity housing, The Press offered no objections.

Obviously, from a purely selfish point of view, the fact that our operation after all these years would then become a so-called non-conforming use would have some effect on our future.

But, again over the years, The Press has seen changes in the area.

Many sub-standard buildings have been removed and a number of basic industrial structures have been built. The area was zoned M-1-S (light industrial) for most of the years in question.

But, as we have said so many times, zoning alone does not change an area. It takes capital to develop anything.

We merely suggested at the time when multiple-housing under the federally-sponsored Neighborhood Development Program was considered as the optimo for the future that a long, hard look should be taken at the substantial buildings that now exist or were proposed for that section of town.

We thought that the idealistic viewpoint of the situation had to be tempered with realism. If the industrial buildings that existed provided a guideline for the future, then perhaps another area should be selected for a housing development.

In other words, a low-cost housing project might be an ideal solution but the question, in our mind, was how it was going to come about and at what cost.

We find no fault with the "interim zoning" that was put on the area. But "interim" is exactly what should be meant and not an indefinite period until maybe there will be federal funding for a development in the area. We were pleased then when the City Council decided to put a 120-day time limit on the interim zoning which has been in effect for 18 months

We commend the Planning Commission for recommending to the City Council that a P-D (planned development) zoning be placed on the area.

In a sense that means that before any proposed buildings go on the rather unusually small lots (for an industrial park), prior approval of the plans must be obtained. Taking out a building permit is not enough.

We sincerely believe that this action of the Planning Commission comes as close to a workable compromise as could be devised for a situation that has no easy answer.

The action of the Planners indicates that the Commissioners recognized the improvements that have already taken place in the area and they were also aware of how indefinite federal funding would be in any major housing project that could be proposed.

Admittedly there will be no major changes overnight, no matter what type of zoning is finally approved.

But the fact remains that there has been a slow but continuous movement to transform the area into an industrial section.

in real trouble, except, of course, when we plan for a late start such as a municipal election.

Thus, by the time of the meeting in which Dean became mayor, The Campbell Press was already more or less "rolling".

YET THERE WAS THE story on the front page that Campbell had a new mayor... Dean Chamberlin.

Remember, you read the paper on Wednesday and the action had been taken the night before.

Sure, the guys on the Council really could have crossed us up.

But it was pretty obvious they were not going to, for we believed, and they did, too, that Chamberlin was the logical choice.

He is a dedicated public servant that sincerely believes in the welfare of the community in which he has lived for almost 30 years.

He will do an excellent job this next year in wielding that new gavel that was presented to the Council by Rusty Hammer, chairman of the Youth Commission.

And that is really not buttering up the guy, for chances are that we will disagree with him on occasion during the next year.

But we assure you that there will be stimulating disagreements and they will not be of a personal nature.

But that is where we came in.

DELIBERATELY THERE was no mention in that news story, which we mentioned a while back, about who was elected vice-mayor.

Obviously again, it appeared pretty certain that because of the rotation policy adopted by the City Council four years ago that Ralph Doetsch (who had been elected to his third term) would be named vice-mayor.

But it didn't have to go that-away.

Policies can be changed.

Ralph, you see, had served as mayor for one year (1966-67) and he also had been vice-mayor previously.

As a matter of fact, the only guy who has not served as either vice-mayor or mayor on the present council is the newcomer to the fold, the person who led the balloting in the city election, Bill Podgorsek.

Bill kept to the policy on hand. He nominated Ralph for vice-mayor, as his first action as a councilman.

So, if the policy holds true, come next year at this time, Ralph Doetsch will assume the mayor's role again.

This will mark the first time in this city's history (since 1952) that such an event has taken place.

There have been mayors reelected in the past to serve for more than a year or two (Dick Morton, for example, the city's first mayor, served for four years) but when Ralph takes over in 1971 it will mark the first time that one councilman actually has gone "through the chairs" twice.

"Through the chairs?"

ONE OF THE SATISFYING features of being a councilman for a period of years is that one can point with pride to the achievements that have accomplished during one's term (or terms) in office.

Ralph, during the past few years, has harped, or worried about, and expressed his concern to his fellow councilmen about a utility pole that stuck out into Winchester Blvd. near Hacienda, after the road had been widened.

He claimed, and with ample justification, that the pole's precarious position was inviting trouble from errant motorists.

And the pole, incidentally, had scars to prove Doetsch's point.

He so consistently called the attention of Bill Wren, public works director, to the pole's location that his fellow councilmen in jest labeled it "Ralph's pole".

Wren would just as consistently report that they were working on it.

Anyway, Wren proudly pointed out to us the other day that the pole had been moved back (about one week after Doetsch was elected for a third term as city councilman).

That's spelled "pole", not "poll".

Or is that too deep for you?

The flag was contributed by the Campbell Municipal Employees Association and the flag ceremony was conducted by members of Boy Scout Troop 336. Taking part were Jim Sheriff, Joe Quilici and Joe Bommarito.

Letters to the Editor

Dear George:

Cub Scout Pack 377, Den 4, under Mrs. DeAnn Williams, was unintentionally omitted from the list of workers I submitted to you on the landscaping of Fire Station No. 2.

These eight boys did a rather unique thing and deserved to be recognized. They held a bake sale to raise enough money to buy a mugo pine for the project, and then came out on planting day and planted it.

We are very proud of their efforts and wish to acknowledge them at this time. They will be officially recognized at the May 11 meeting of the Council when the Mayor will present them with their certificate.

Sincerely,
Jeanette Watson

Campbell Parent groups hold culmination meet

The annual Culmination Meeting of the Parent Discussion Groups of the Campbell Union High School District will be held tonight, April 29, at 7:45 p.m., in the Del Mar High School Cafetorium. It will feature a program of unusually vital interest to the parents, teachers, and students in the Campbell Union High School District at this time.

Dr. Raymond G. Arveson, District Superintendent of the Hayward Unified School District, will speak on the topic of "The Harsh Reality of School Financial Crisis." The Hayward District has had to make severe cuts in its budget last year, and is now in the process of making its second round of retrenchment.

The Campbell District is faced with the possibility of educational economies due to the failure of a tax election in February. There is special interest in hearing from someone who can give first-hand information on what cutbacks have been made and how they have affected their community's educational program. There will be ample opportunity for questions and answers.

Leaders and participants in Parent Discussion Groups will be present at this meeting along with school personnel who have participated in the Discussion Groups as consultants. This Culmination Meeting serves as a climax to the series of group discussions which have been in progress during the school year in all of our school areas.

The general topic has been "Better Understanding High School Youth". This program of neighborhood forums has been going on since 1956 in the district and each year the culmination meeting features outstanding speakers on topics of special interest to parents.

For further information, please contact Mrs. Helen Andres, Parent Education Coordinator, at 379-4710.

the LEFTOVER lover

Phyllis Diller knows garbage.
And she knows how women hate to handle the stuff. She says what most women want for Mother's Day is something for every day—something to end the muss, the mess, the odors, the time and the trouble that "go" with garbage. And that's an In-Sink-Erator, successor to Fang as the world's finest garbage disposer. See In-Sink-Erator Model 77. It's stainless steel and is practically maintenance-free.

Campbell Corners

By Cindy Harris

Registraiton for this year's summer school is now open. The deadline for registering is May 8. Prospect and Branham High are the two campuses open for the summer session which is held from June 22 to July 31.

Courses in farm mechanics and ornamental horticulture will be held at Westmont and the vocational center will also be offering courses for the summer school students. A theater arts program will also be offered at Campbell High.

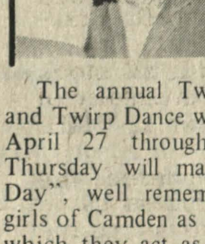
Students will be placed on a first-come, first-served basis so it is important to register as soon as possible, remembering that the deadline is May 8.

Miss Valdez, the junior counselor, asked me to stress the point that summer school gives those students who are down in credits the opportunity to take classes and make up lost credits or to take a class and gain extra credits that may be needed later.

Coming up in one of our next assemblies will be a demonstration of the art of Kindo. Kindo is the art of sword-fighting and the student council has arranged for Dr. Chess to put on the demonstration, which should make a very worthwhile assembly.

Seniors are reminded that May 6 is the day that the panoramic picture of the senior class of '70 will be taken. Seniors are to hand in their envelopes on that day with the $1.75 enclosed if they wish to receive a picture.

This week the showcase is in the hands of the seniors, so stop and take a look. It could be a very rewarding experience.



Camden Chatter

by Paul Bell

The annual Twirp Week and Twirp Dance will be held April 27 through May 1. Thursday will mark "Slave Day", well remembered by girls of Camden as the day in which they act as the boys' servants by carrying books to their classes, opening doors for them, and just about doing anything else to serve toward the utmost comfort of the boys that day.

But don't plan on getting the worst end of the deal, girls, because on Friday you get a chance to get back as that day is "Revenge Day". So take advantage of it!!

Friday night, May 1, is the Twirp Dance which will be held in the cafetorium from 8 to 11 p.m. This is when the girls ask the boys for a date to the dance. Marriages will be performed during intermission by Marryin' Sam and Sadie Hawkins. Music will be provided by "Goody Two Shoes".

Student film makers now have the opportunity to display their talents at this year's California High School Film Festival held at San Mateo High on May 28-30. Camden students are expected to show quite a turnout there this year.

La Rinconada Country Club is the site for this year's Junior-Senior Ball. Theme for the ball, to be held May 1, is "A Time for Us". Providing music for dancing will be "Past, Present, and Future" a band who was recently part of the Jimmy Vaughn band.

Their other credits include accompanying Tom Jones in previous engagements. Plans for the ball have been made for two months, by members of both classes. Bids cost $7.00 and are on sale until Friday. All faculty members have been invited, and the affair lasts from 8 p.m. to 12 midnight.

Prospect's annual CSF/Honor Society trip to San Francisco will be May 13 this year. Officers have been busy making up information sheets, maps, and contacting theaters to determine what movies students can see this year.

All students going have a choice between three movies and a play. The movies are: "Anne of the Thousand Days", "Z", and "Patton", and the play is "1776". Requirements for the trip state that the student must have worked in the snack bar for at least one shift during the year.

Faculty advisor Mrs. Kay Hall stated that she didn't know how much money would be given to the students, but that it would probably be two or three dollars.

Last Saturday Prospect's Concert Band and Symphonic Orchestra journeyed to a festival at San Jose City College. There they competed with other junior high and high schools from the area. The bands and orchestra were judged on prepared pieces and on sight-reading.

On a grading scale of 5, with 1 being the highest score, and 5 the lowest, the Symphonic Orchestra received four 1's. The Band received three 2's and a 3. Orchestra Director Mr. Sam Espeseth and Band Director Mr. Thomas Wyant were both very pleased by the results.

The Orchestra played two selections, "Adagio and Allegro", and the "Abduction From the Seraglio". The Band played "2001", "Till Eulenspiegel's Merry Pranks", and "March Grandioso".

Rogers receives honors at State

Edward J. Rogers, Jr. has received notice that he has been named a Dean's Scholar from the School of Natural Sciences and Mathematics in recognition of distinguished scholarship at San Jose State.

A major in entemology, Rogers will graduate in June. He plans to do post graduate work at the University of California, Berkeley. Rogers was a 1966 Campbell High School graduate and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rogers, 150 Branbury Dr.

Four -H Club

Members of the Campbell 4-H club are working on their community pride project, and as part of the program, the Los Gatos creek bed in Campbell Park on Campbell Ave. will benefit from their efforts.

Assisted by the Santa Clara County Park and Recreation Department, members will be tackling weeds, planting trees and providing the necessary manual labor towards the beautification of the area.

Serving as co-chairmen are Nora Smith and Stacey Smith; Dennis Chivers, publicity; Paulette and Eric Antonicic; photography and Lynn and Kevin Smith, membership supervision.

The May meeting has been designated as Mother's Night, according to the report made by Mrs. Rosemary Chivers.

At the last meeting reports were given by Cindy Peterson on a recent skating party attended by 30 members and a recent Presentation Day report was given by Lynn Smith.

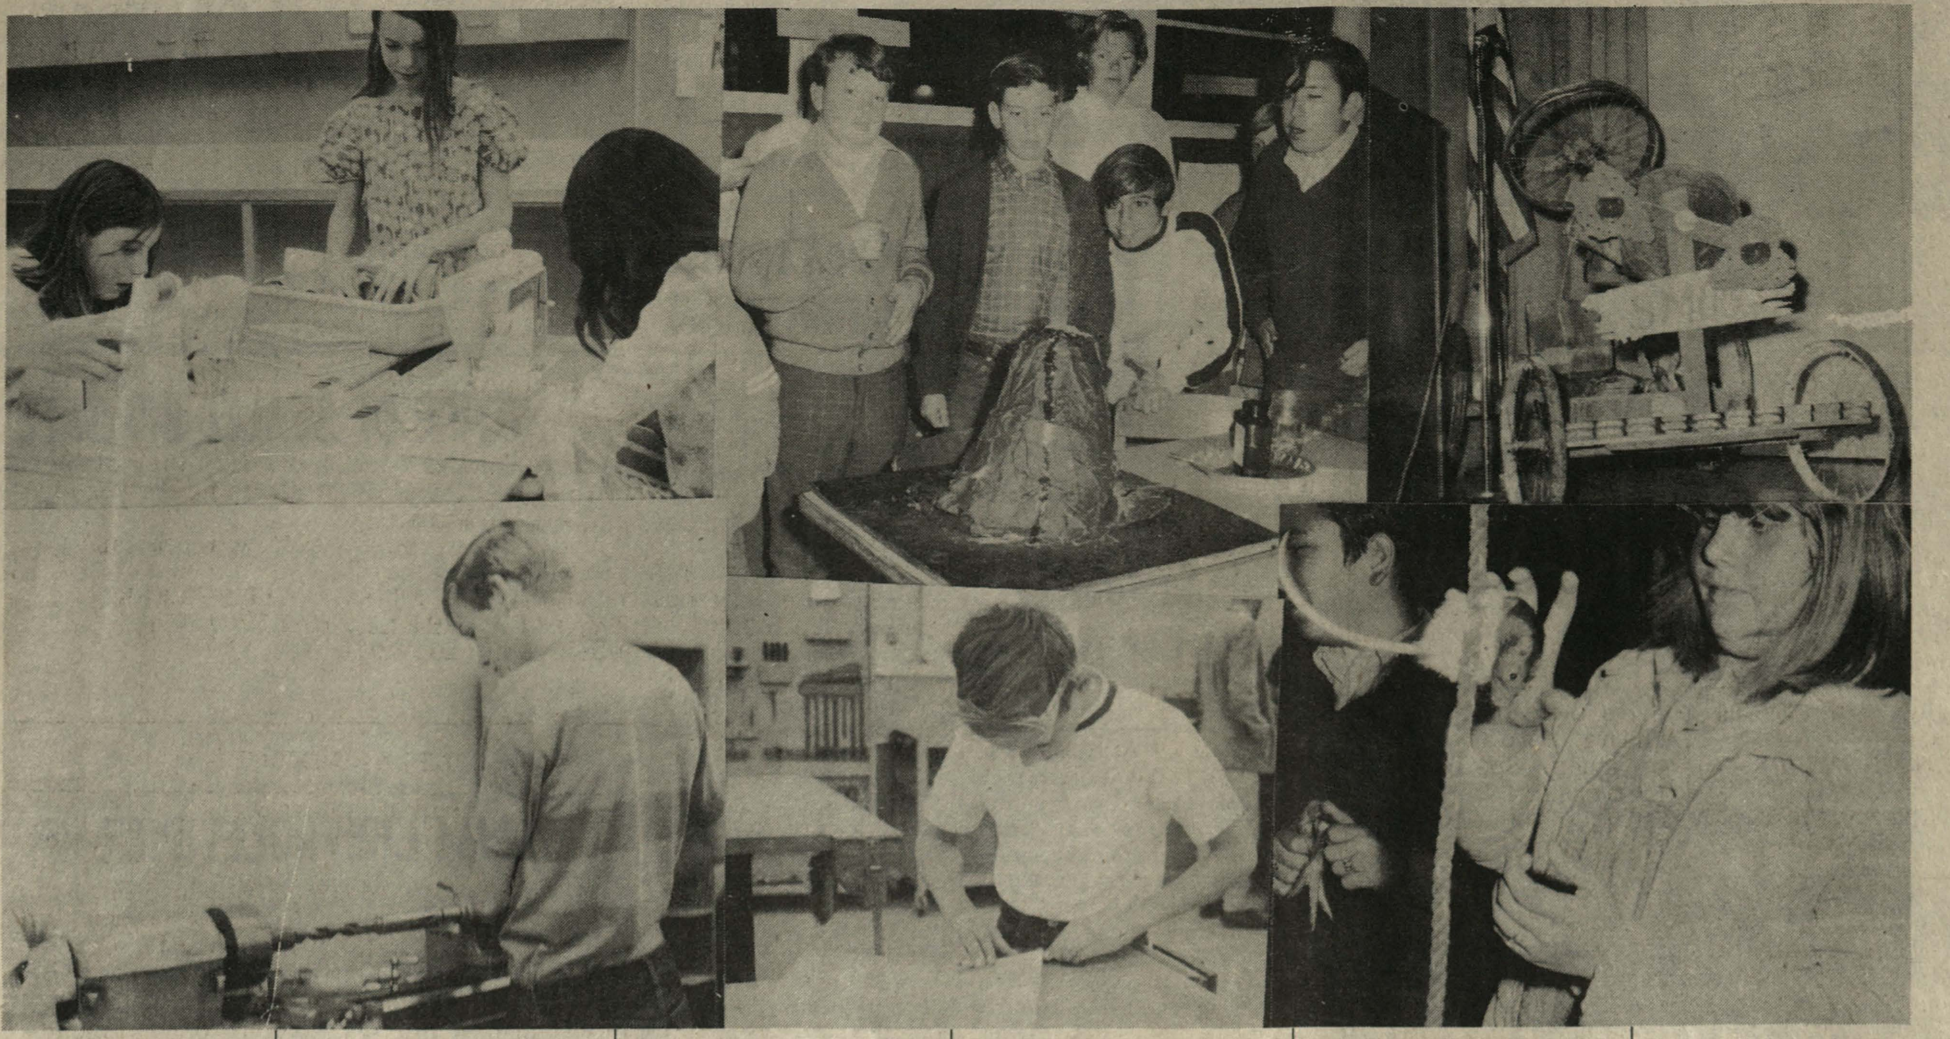
Public Schools week sees students in action



STUDENTS LEARN MANY THINGS--Open houses were held in all of the Campbell District schools during the Public Schools Week observance, and parents were invited to visit the classrooms and observe what their children were learning. In the Campbell Elementary School the students not only displayed their learning material, they showed by doing the many things they are learning.

In other rooms students demonstrated learning procedures in Spanish, and math and in the gym a demonstration of gymnastics was held throughout the evening.

Church women hold Fellowship Day on May 1

Members of the Country Woman's Club of Campbell will enjoy a delightful musical program at their May 4 meeting.

Senior musical students from Campbell High School District schools will audition for the music scholarships which each year are given by the club to outstanding music students.

Twelve contestants will be competing for the awards, with the club sponsoring four music scholarships; two for vocal and two for instrumental.

Mrs. Courtland Watson will serve as chairman for the afternoon assisted by Mesdames Joseph Gomes, Ann Furtado, H. M. Shadle and Richard Field.

On May 1 and 2 the club will hold its spring rummage sale at the clubhouse, featuring quality rummage. This is an annual event and proceeds are used to build up the many scholarship funds given by the club for outstanding students in both art and music.

PYRAMID LUNCHEON--Mrs. George Rodriguez of Campbell reaches for a sandwich as Mrs. Mildred Andersen, Santa Clara, office manager for the USO Building Fund Campaign, chats with Mrs. M. T. Jones of San Jose. This was a "pyramid" luncheon, at which each guest donated to the USO campaign and pledged to hold a similar luncheon of her own to raise additional funds, and to provide additional fund-raising luncheons.

Star Circle holds lunch

Star Circle, Order of Eastern Star, Campbell Chapter, will host the founding members of the order in a mother-daughter luncheon to be held Monday, May 4, at the Hacienda, on the Saratoga-Los Gatos Road. The luncheon will be held at 1 p.m.

Reservations for the luncheon and for rides may be phoned to Mrs. Mary Wilson, worthy matron; Mrs. Karol Lake, junior past worthy matron, Mrs. Hazel Nash or Mrs. Harriet Singner. Reservations must be made by Saturday, May 2.

Mrs. Lake is serving as chairman with all Star officers serving on the committee.

PHARMACY PHACTS

Princeton Plaza fashion show set for May 2

With Mother's Day approaching, Princeton Plaza Merchants Association presents "The Tender Look" - the most unusual fashion show of the year, at 2 p.m. Saturday, May 2, in the Central Mall, 1375 Blossom Hill Rd. at Kooser and Meridian.

The theme is taken from the original title planned by D. H. Lawrence for Lady Chatterly's Lover - it was Tenderness. The fashions will be to wear for all those we love, at all occasions - with everything from bikinis to bedtime allurements to tailored suits for men and casual wear for everybody.

Television personality Lu Ryden will be commentator for an informal and surprise-filled show and promises a lavish array of great clothes and other delights - including amusing props from every store in Princeton Plaza - that's 44 of them - for the whole family, for Mother's Day and "your whole loving summer."

Presented entirely by professional models from the Fisher Model Agency, the show will be coordinated by agency co-owners Jill O'Brien and Ellen Waters. Mrs. Waters just returned from the New York meeting of the Models Association of America loaded with fresh new ideas for this show.

There will be party scenes and bedtime scenes and fun times - like children painting each other - with appropriate clothes for every tender hour of a lively, loving summer day and night. Flowers, music and favors for everyone will enhance audience enjoyment of "The Tender Look" fashion show.

MOVING

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Buster Dunn will be interested in knowing that the Dunn's will be moving to Elko, Nevada, around the middle of June.

Wheat farming on 360 acres is in the future for all the little Dunns. They have been making their home at 780 S. San Tomas for many years.

WV College presents play

The New York Times said of it: "laughs from beginning to end". Other critics have said "a marvelous array of side-bursting joke lines... universal and believable appeal".

The rave reviews belong to Neil Simon's "Barefoot in the Park," which will be presented April 30, May 1 and 2 by the drama department of West Valley College. Curtain time 8:15 p.m. at the Campbell campus auditorium.

Shelley Stratton, Los Gatos High graduate, will play Corie, with John Wood of Campbell as her husband, Paul. Ruth Cook, graduate of Mother Butler in Santa Clara, will play Corie's mother, while Dan O'Connell, Camden High, will portray Victor Velasco.

The production will be open to the public and tickets will be available through the drama department or at the door of the auditorium (51 E. Campbell Ave., Campbell) prior to each performance.

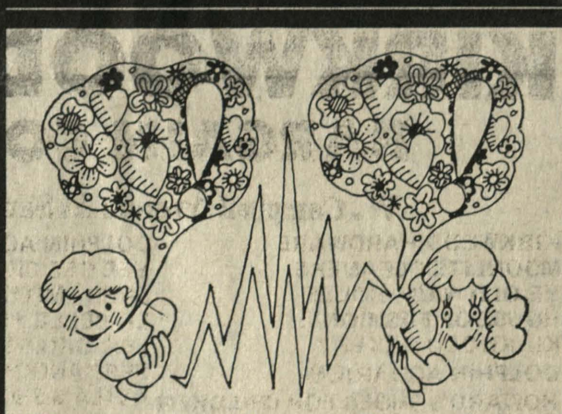
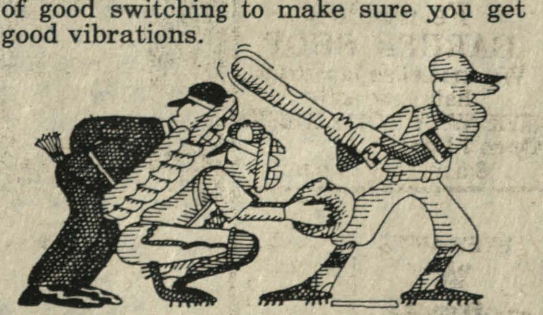
THE PHONE BOOTH



Whenever we talk, we vibrate the air between us and the person we're talking to. The mouthpiece of your telephone changes the air vibrations into electrical impulses which travel to the other telephone receiver. There the electrical waves are converted back into sound waves which are uniquely your own. Unseen, however, in this process are the billions of miles of wire and millions of switches which could be used to direct your vibrations to the single phone, of the more than 200 million telephones in the world, that you selected. With millions of calls a day, it takes a lot of good switching to make sure you get good vibrations.



Be sure and join us on radio for the San Francisco Giants' exciting baseball games. Pacific Telephone is one of the sponsors who'll be keeping you up on the action throughout the season. Sportscasters Russ Hodges, Lon Simmons and Bill Thompson will be giving you handy tips on the use of your telephone.

fied as contributing to the potential maximum education.

He claimed also that sex education in schools was not going to solve the sex delinquency problem because schools are not able to solve a problem that actually lies outside the school.

Rafferty maintained also that a propaganda gap exists because advocates of one philosophy have been allowed to speak on campuses without having another speaker present at the same time to refute the statements.

Approximately 150 people attended the dinner in the Campbell High cafetorium with the Rev. W. H. (Ben) Gould, chairman of the Congress, as master-of-ceremonies.

Bob Bullard, president of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce, reported on the Congress panel discussion groups that had been held on Thursday. The Rev. Leonard W. Bose, pastor of St. Lucy's, gave the invocation and Mayor Dean Chamberlin led the flag salute.

MORE ABOUT

New city hall

not received the second addendum to the specifications from the architect until the morning of the day the bids were to be submitted.

Through an oversight, the addendum had not been given special handling in the mailing and had been delayed enroute.

With the elimination of Griffin's bid, the Frazier bid of $779,000 thus became the one to be considered by the Council. Bill Hedley, architect for the project, reported that the bid was 3% above the estimate.

The bids ranged from the $779,000 to a high of $858,750, a span of almost $80,000.

However, only $1,854 separated the next bid from Frazier's and the third bid was only $2700 above the low.

Based on the $779,000 bid, the cost per square foot of the 30,025 square-foot building is $25.95.

At next Monday's session, the Council will have a number of alternatives to consider, including the tossing out of all the bids and starting all over again by calling for new bids.

Another possible course open, according to Hedley, would be to make certain "change orders" effective before the construction starts which could possibly cut the cost.

Still another route would be to increase the tax rate enough for the next two years to cover the deficit.

City Manager Bob Stephens cited in his report two primary causes of the expanded deficit over original estimates.

He reported that because of the separation of the library from the city hall, the land acquisition jumped from the estimated $100,000, to $193,000.

Another factor involved, Stephens added, was that $31,000 in interest earned by city bonds was used for Fire Station No. 2.

High School District "Town Hall"

Overwhelming support for a second chance to vote on a tax rate increase for Campbell Union High School District was voiced by parents who attended a series of town-hall meetings April 14-22.

The Campbell district was left in a financial dilemma when voters failed to approve a 35-cent increase in the operating tax in a February election.

At the end of next year the current $1.35 rate automatically reverts to one dollar. This reduction would mean a two million dollar budget deficit and cut-backs in the school program.

Capacity attendance was reported at the meetings held in each of the district's eight schools. Parents had the opportunity to discuss proposed economies with representatives of school administrators, teachers, P.T.A., and students.

The economies, it was pointed out, would affect all school departments — busing, purchase of textbooks.

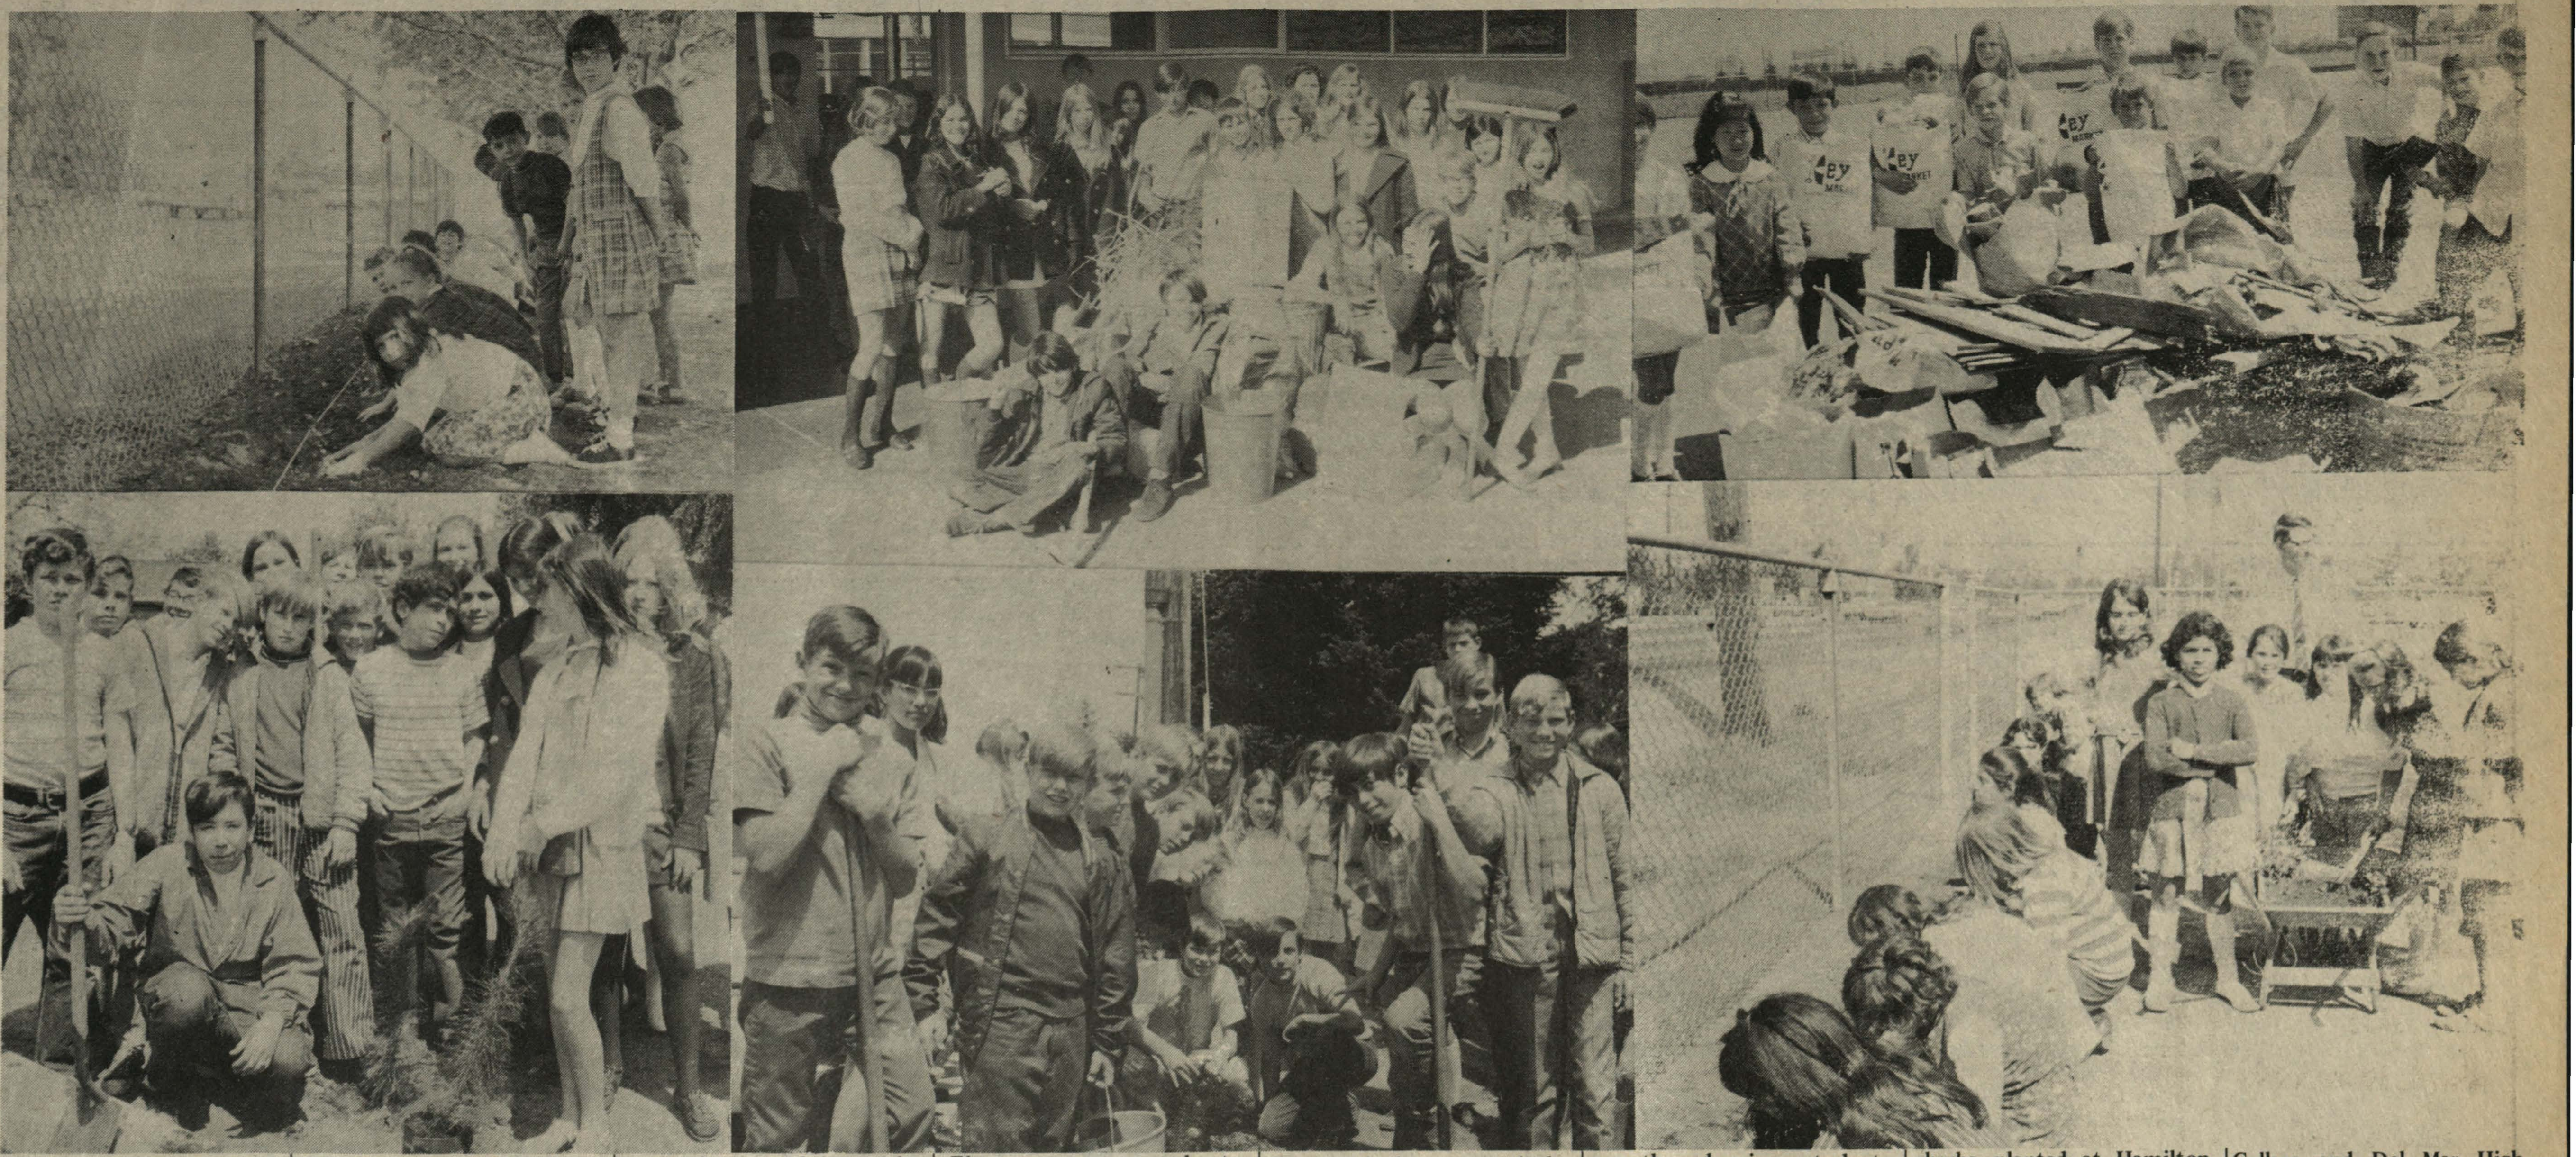
Campbell students observe Earth Day, April 22



EARTH DAY OBSERVANCE---Students in Campbell District schools were aware of the significance of "Earth Day" April 22, when a united effort was made by all citizens to preserve the ecology of our world.

In the bottom row, first and second pictures are seventh grade science students who planted a total of 15 trees around the school and, lower right picture, more shrubs planted at Hamilton School. In many schools, students rode bikes or walked to school and at the West Valley College and Del Mar High School students were observed arriving at school on horseback.

SPORTS FANS!

One of the most amazing stories in sports is the comeback of a basketball player on the New York Knicks–Dave Stallworth...Many people are not aware that Stallworth suffered a heart attack in 1967 and had to retire from the game...But he is back and playing at full speed this season...Imagine anyone who had a heart attack playing professional basketball, running up and down the court, play after play, game after game.

Fourth Baby Sitters Course graduates 46

Requests from all over the United States are being received by the Campbell Fire Department for the Baby-sitters Manual being used by the department for their Baby-sitters Seminar. The fourth Baby-sitting Seminar class will graduate 46 students Monday evening May 4.

Because of a special emergency meeting called for the same evening, City Council members and the city manager will not be able to attend the meeting as originally planned.

Graduation ceremonies will be held at 7 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of the Campbell Elementary School with Fire Chief George R. Maxwell conferring the diplomas. The class includes eight boys who are just as enthusiastic about the course as the girls.

Another class is scheduled for October. Information on the next sessions may be had by calling the Campbell Fire Department. The 10-week class sessions are held once a week for two hours a week.

Nationwide interest in the course was aroused following publication of an article in the October 1969 issue of The Fire Engineer's Magazine,

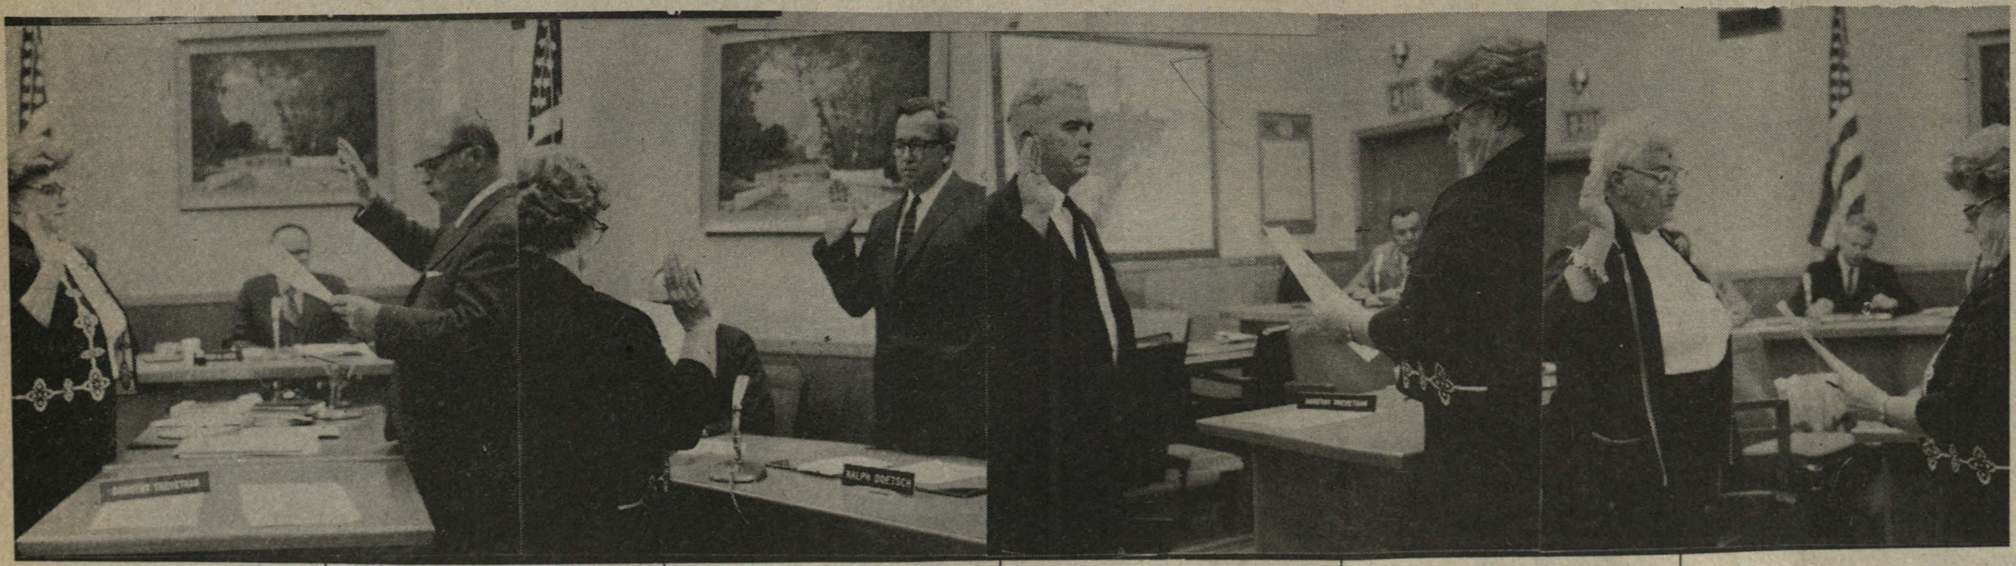
There was lots of "swearing" going on at the Campbell City Hall



OATH OF OFFICE---On Tuesday, April 21, one week from the municipal election, after the votes in that election had been officially certified, those elected in the city election were duly sworn into office.

However, before City Clerk Dorothy Trevethan could administer the oath of office to the newly-elected officials, she, herself, had to be sworn in for her fifth four-year term by City Attorney Joe Bonacina (first photo on the left).

In the next photo the city clerk swears in Councilman Ralph Doetsch, who was elected to his third term and who was named vice-mayor by his fellow councilmen on the same night, when Dean Chamberlin, who served as vice-mayor last year, was named mayor for the next year.

In the next picture, Councilman Bill Podgorsek, who was elected to his first term on April 14 and led the balloting.

In the picture on the far right, City Clerk Trevethan administers the oath of office to Mrs. Velma Olds who was elected to her fourth four-year term on April 14.

Pony League opens season Saturday at Rincon Park

Campbell - Moreland Pony League, comprised of 13-14-year-olds, open the 1970 season this Saturday, May 2, at noon.

This will be the second season for the league at the city-owned Rincon Park field.

The new clubhouse construction is well along and several areas of the clubhouse are available for snack sales and fan comfort.

Civic and baseball officials will be on hand when the opening ceremonies get under way at 11:30 a.m. John Smurthwaite will be the MC with the flag raising and pledge of allegiance events conducted by American Legion Post 158.

League President Les Baldinger will close the ceremonies.

Following introduction of starting line-ups for the Optomist Cubs and the Ron Rife Shell Giants, Mayor Dean Chamberlin will toss out the first ball.

All baseball fans and friends of Pony League are invited to attend a full schedule of baseball on opening day.

In addition to opening ceremonies and the Optomist-Ron Rife Shell game at 12:00, the following teams will also see action:

Asquith Mets vs. Gagliardi Braves, 9:30 a.m.;

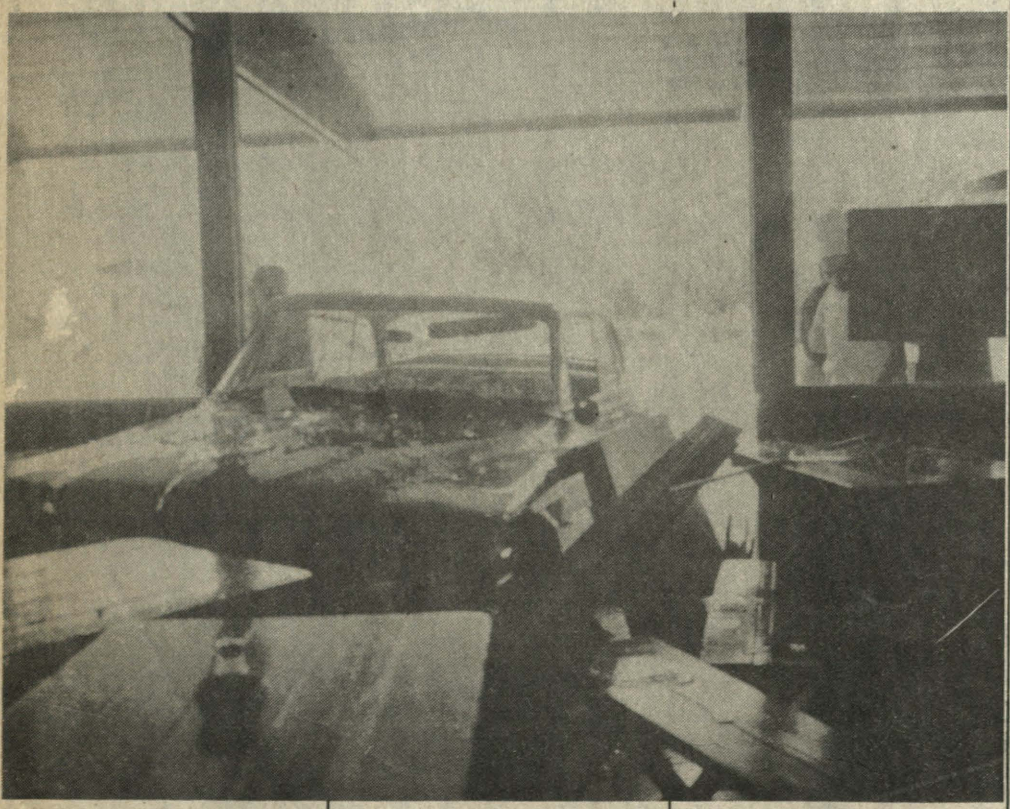
Valley Athletic Cards vs. Albertson's Dodgers, 2:30 p.m.;

Straw Hat Tigers vs. Silver Coach A's, 5:00 p.m.

NEW LIBRARY ADDITION–The Campbell Public Library now has a microfilm reader-printer. Microfilm for several years on a number of magazines, is already in the library and the collection will be continuously added to.

A patron may use the reader to read microfilm copies of a magazine, or he may make his own copies for 10¢ a page. This newest addition to County Library services will make more periodicals available to more people, more of the time.

Mrs. Booth, Campbell librarian, is shown using the reader.



THE CAR THAT CAME TO DINNER---Much to everyone's surprise, a car driven by Mrs. Margaret Magdaleno failed to stop last Wednesday and ended up inside the Spitfire Restaurant, corner of Campbell and Dillon Avenues.

Rape suspect held in jail
